

I have recently heard some fussing about the language in tv/radio media. I believe that history clearly demonstrates that cultures that practice censorship fail.

I believe intelligent cultures respect, even promote the open and unfettered freedom of expression in all forms.

I trust that this culture will support me in this belief, and continue to profit from that support.

respectfully,
r.w.angel,jr..